One naturally would suppose there would be little left of a baseball learn deprived of those stars caught in the grand jusy not last fall. So it wasn't supprising while visiting the major leasure camps to find expressions of sympathy on every band for Kid Gleason manager of the once great White Sox. It was surprising onthe contrary when the calling at the Sox camp to find not only Kid Gleason but all of his athietes in quite high spirits and looking for sympathy from no one.

After spending a couple or three days with this new Sox outfit, one rather catches that same spirit and finds himself believing that after all the White Sox team isn't a total wreck.

The large congregation which attended the Easter morning service at the First Congregational church was afforded the opportunity of hearing a most impressive sermon by the pastor. Rev. Gurdon F. Bailey, who took for his subject An Angel. A Sepuichre, and a Garden. The scripture lesson for the day was the 19th chapter of St. John, beginning with the 18th verse, which reads: And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a retly for fear of the Jews. heseught Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave. He came, therefore and took the body of Jesus, Now'm 185 place where the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him leave. He came, therefore and took the body of Jesus. Now in 155 place where He was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jew's proparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand. The well arranged musical program by Organist Herbert L. Terrington was a feature of the service. The authems by the choir were given with spirit and inspiration. For an offeriory soio Te Bells of Easter Day, by Dressier, was finely interpreted by Miss Bernice Underwood, soprano, who sing in clear, sweet voice, with flute obligato by L. Stanley Gay. The heautiful decorations were of Easter littles, daffodlis and hyscinths effectively arranged among showering palms. These were given as a memorial to Mrs. Julia Lathrop Potter, for many years a valued member of this parish, always constant in attendance, with never ceasing devotion to the welfare of the phurch.
